

Pennsylvania
Grazing Lands
Coalition

Grazing Education and Mentorship for Pennsylvania

www.paglc.org

WINTERING LIVESTOCK EFFECTIVELY WHILE THINKING AHEAD TO SUMMER GRAZING!
PAGLC Workshop in conjunction with the Southwest Project Grass quarterly meeting

When: Thursday, November 14th

Where: Westmoreland County Ag Center

214 Donohoe Road, Greensburg, PA 15601

Who: Anyone interested in livestock grazing is welcome to attend. Registration is FREE!

- 9:00 AM Grazing Stockpiled Winter Forages While Planning for Summer Grazing
Leanna Duppstadt, Penn State Extension Field and Forage Crop Team
- 10:00 AM Heavy-Use Areas: from the farmer's and the engineer's perspective
JB Harrold, JBH Farm
Jennifer Harrold, USDA-NRCS engineer
- 11:00 AM Bale Grazing: what is it, what are the advantages, and how can I implement it?
Aaron Miller, Miller Livestock Company, Kinsman, OH
Brian Campbell, USDA-NRCS State Grazing Specialist
- 12:00 PM Lunch at the Westmoreland County Ag Center
Continue discussion about bale grazing
Visit with other participants
- 1:00 PM Southwest Project Grass Meeting
- 2:00 PM Adjourn

To register online, visit: <https://forms.gle/hvZhXRkrxaTtAmec7>

To register via phone, contact Dave Hartman 570-204-1701